OF
CONGREGATION BETH YESHURUN

The Men's Club of Beth Yeshurun invites you to meet the

"Pied Piper of Jewish Music!"

Sunday, May 22 - 7:00 p.m.

Ruth Shechter, director of our Youth Choir, remembers the Sol Zim concert at Beth Yeshurun in March, 1992. "Our choir kids from the Day School and Religious School really loved Zim's music. It was lively, catchy...they actually enjoyed learning the prayers by singing his songs. I do believe that music will stay with the students for the rest of their lives."

Yes, it's the children that "Pied Piper" Sol Zim is reaching out to. He's sung with hundreds of youth choirs throughout the country, going all the way back to 1976 when he conducted a Jewish rock service involving the youngsters in Jewish music that "comes alive".

But then, aren't we all kids at heart! Don't we all enjoy lively tunes that are easy to remember? And that's what makes this Sol Zim concert on May 22 a very special evening for both parents and their children. Or, as Cantor Zim says: "Without our young people, Judaism is without a future. Let's all be young and Jewish together!"

Highlights of the May 22 program:

Israeli & Yiddish Folk Songs • Pop & Broadway Show Tunes • Jewish Religious Music • Operatic Arias and of course, the Beth Yeshurun Youth Choir singing Sol Zim songs!

SOL ZIM!

Zimply Wonderful!

and that internationally famous super star returns to Beth Yeshurun

Sunday, May 22 - 7:00 p.m.

In March, 1992, this is the way the Jewish Herald-Voice reviewed the recent concert appearance by Sol Zim at Congregation Beth Yeshurun:

"More than 1,300 people filled Beth Yeshurun's sanctuary and Pulaski-Rauch Auditorium on March 15 to hear and see a multi-musical presentation by Sol Zim. The audience was snapping its fingers, tapping its toes and clapping hands to Zim's prayers, Israeli music, show-biz tunes, and old-time melodies."

And, as Rabbi Segal added: "He is truly an exceptional cantor, singer and entertainer. He brought smiles to faces, warmth to hearts, and spirit and emotion to prayers that to many had only been words printed on the pages of prayer books."

And these comments merely touch on Cantor Sol Zim's talents and the joy he brings to everyone at his concerts which are presented, seemingly endlessly throughout the United States, Canada, South America, South Africa, Australia and Israel. So...
